

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 15, 1996

SUBJECT: HB 2909 - SB 3082

This bill, if enacted, will increase the State Textbook Commission from 10 to 12 members. The two additional members shall be appointed by the Governor.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures for travel expenses for the two additional members. However, such increase is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.
